

In The Loop

The Newsletter of The Norfolk Reading Project

www.thenorfolkreadingproject.co.uk

We have exciting, if somewhat technically-challenging, times at The Norfolk Reading Project with the launch of our new Portal which can be found via the PORTAL tab at the top right hand corner of our website. Please make sure you have re-entered your details including your DBS number and update number, which is different. Please use the drop-down menu to click on the school where you currently volunteer. Don't forget to click Update after you have entered any details – I forgot this to my cost and wasted a fair few minutes. We would also be most grateful to hear if you are no longer volunteering, wish to change schools or want to be removed from our mailing list altogether.

The Norfolk Reading Project warmly invites you to our next

Happy 10th Birthday TNRP!

This year we turn 10 and we have great plans to celebrate. Former Children's Laureate Chris Ridell will be speaking on the importance of childhood reading at The Assembly House on October 25th 2025 at 6:30pm.

Tickets for this are £10 but TNRP volunteers go free – just contact Joe at The Book Hive 01603 219268 to book a place.

We are so grateful that proceeds from the evening go to TNRP.

Mannington Book Bash!

Simon Armitage, Esther Freud and Nigel Planer are among the famous names appearing at the Mannington Book Bash September 26-28th 2025 at the lovely Mannington Hall where TNRP will also be hosting a stand.

Tickets are available from
thebookhive.co.uk
